superstar DJs for the good straight folks on a Fri night.

Bennetts had tributes galore back in Dec with Cheryl Cole.

Take That and all the usual suspects. They're pretty good for their live acts to be honest – they always pick the right acts for their crowd. It's nice to feel like the crowd you're part of is enjoying themselves – I sometimes think the Polo Lounge peeps watch live performances more out of duty than judgement as opposed to appreciation. I remember Bennetts had Adam Rickitt in a few months back, which is why I'm a little surprised to see the Polo putting on the same act a few months later but if we're all honest his act is a tepid that can keep coming back again and again and satisfy even time. The Rickitt will be live in the Polo Lounge on the Valentine's weekend. I think I'll get myself in the mood to 'breathe again' in the much improved cocktail bar Moda.

But enough about nightlife! As Madonna says 'my love's a Revolver' – it's the grown up gay bar for the grown up gays.

The afternoon quiz has a few serious masterminds competing every week so if you're a bright spark you really must come in and bash their idea.

It's not that I don't say that I myself have stayed in a little more than I'd like throughout Jan and so I haven't had the opportunity to check in on the tLC boys at FRG. They still run FEMMES HOMESQUEENS on a Thu and Passionally on a Mon. I can't honestly say I observe a huge difference between these two nights in either musical style or clientele, but Shaun Roberts is in a doubt of the best DJs on the scene so that's total.

I'm sad to say that I myself have ended my previous relationship with the crowd taking control of the music and really interacting with the crowds. It's only a shame her stalls for this one free period only.

The staff are the newest arrivals to the scene works hard to build a following. Not that she's no bad thing.

Now I won't deny that I myself

I'm excited to see what else they use their gallery space for in the future, and for the tone being the exhibition is free, so stop by before it closes in early Mar!

As ever I'm sure I've missed out some particular, but we are lucky enough to live in a city where there are literally too many venues to mention in one feature. Next month I'll take a walk and check out some of our other hotspots to bring you the lowdown. But don't you be reading too much into that – it's far too cold for a late night wander in Kelvingrove!

Catch ye!

The staff were horrified.

On the Isle of Lewis, the managing director of Isles FM, Rev Stanley Bennett, was sacked yesterday after it was revealed he had been to the Grabondo Gun gang’s top hit The Bad Touch in a gay friendly bar in the Netherlands and he and baby aren’t anything but mammals. Let’s do it like they do on the Discovery Channel.
