H everyone, it's hard to say what's going to be the main event this month - our annual Pride celebration, or the bloody Royal Wedding! Both events have our same pubs and clubs, with their knickers in a twist as they organise this frightful do to commemorate the royal wedding. On Fri 29th Apr they open them at 11am, with a free breakfast and the big event shown on the big screens! DJ Bloody Bunny will be the wedding DJ from 5pm. On Sat 30th Apr they have an After-Party with DJ Paton, and on Sun the have the honeymoon with DJ Dazz & 4pm and DJ Paton from 9pm. Their quiz night is also starting back on Wed nights. And for Pride, they have a weekend spectacular with great nights for the whole planned for the whole weekend. On the day they open it at 11am. DJ All day right through till 6am.

The New Town Bar is celebrating Pride Scotia with personal appearances by Katrina – you'll get a chance to hear his new hit single. A physique will also appear as well a Guest Stripper and there will be celebrity drag with prizes and competitions galore.

The CC Rooms Pride Party on Sat 7th May has entertainment from 2pm-6pm and will feature an appearance and DJ set from Holysocks and Coronation Street star Chris O’Donovan. There will also be a free hot dog stall from Noon-3pm.

Perpetual Indulgence’s Tea Dance is due on at 1pm, but you can also download a free copy of www.pride-scotia.org where any updates will appear.

After the march, the Health & Community Fair is at the Omni Centre from 13.00-4.00pm. Lots of stalls with foods and hot people in uniforms. There's also the Big Pink Tent for young people aged in Saughton Hall from Noon until 4.30pm. And the Kids Space (zorbing) is at the SHYX Central Hostel from Noon-3.00pm for youngsters aged 6 month-10 years. Free of charge sessions can be booked in advance to help you plan your day - phone the Centre Go-up on 0131 653 2116 for bookings and further information.

You can also enjoy the Order of Perpetual Indulgence’s Tea Dance at Woodside High, 1 Greenside Place. Open from 2.30-4.30pm. No alcohol, so open to everybody. With free tea and sandwichs – but they'll be looking for donations for Pride!

Planet will be hosting a community fundraiser for LGBT Youth Scotland, with volunteers coming along from the organisation to give you information about the services they provide; sell you special purple charity ribbons and offer face painting! And word on the street is that cheeky mixy Abbas Cilla Black will be putting in an appearance! Planet will be opening super early on Pride to offer Pride Breakfast – lift your stomach before getting tall of booze!! And Planet have also booked the big gay bus for the march too. Music pumping, 72’s decks theme – the party never stops at Planet, and everywhere else they contact the love!

Planet are now dedicating every Thu night to DJ Tim, DJ Tom and more fun!!! And not only that, it will be a weekly fundraiser for local charity LGBT Youth. The nights will involve all sorts of tomfoolery, like DJ or No DJ – ever fancied yourself as the Dj Dj? This is your chance to run very successfully in the past. A night of constant games, fun, and entertainment and all for a good cause.

Elsewhere on the scene at Habana those crazy cats have been raising more funds! This time the charity of choice is most worthy cause Macmillan Cancer, and the crew at Habas raised over £800!!! They’d like to thank all their customers for their continued support with their charity nights. Other news at Habas – popular Penny Arrows is off to Turkey for the summer so they now have DJ Dolly Fleming-Stanley.

Speaking of the street, don't forget that every Wed they have a Pub Quiz; on Thu it's Doublerly Street with DJ Honey Tonk, Fridays – Dancing in The Street with DJ Tony Wembs and Saturdays – DJ sets from DJ Myles, Phunucal, Craig Fraser & Morgan Kaupuss. Down at Elbow they have a Pub Quiz every Wednesday, every Thursday, every Friday and every Saturday. Sticking in the wake of the 'Deen scene on the wee while. Cheerful Bar & Nightclubs are about to go act mad with a PA and meet and greet from the X Factor. We'd say that. 4th June when they head off to Chester and a cheeky wee pint. Cheerful is also the place to catch DJs Jim, Steve and as he was calling it to me right the other night, Ross Barry, maybe it's the hair! There will be a massive 10th Anniversary Party with Pride’s luminous 2011 which promises 4 days of partying. Cheerful are the place to go if you're a great fan of the party vibe the small team of students involved

People who experience hate crime (including but not limited to hate crimes based on sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, race, religion, or sexual or gender identity or expression) are more likely to report it. They may worry that others will not believe they were victimised, that they will not be taken seriously, or that they will be re-traumatised by reporting it. This can be especially difficult for people who experience hate crime because of their race, religion, sexuality, or gender identity or expression.

Abandoned T-Girls On The Town

Terms & Conditions

Helping LGBT+ people to make the most of what’s happening on the ‘Deen scene for the last few weeks, I did when I was approached this month by

The story of how T-Girls look to get away from the commercial gay scene with its more traditional campiness, the Blythswood Square Hotel is clearly a place where nobody's got anything excitedly about a night out. It's just not the place they're going to beat her with their after changes has definitely pleased my mother.

It may be because it's a love, but I can get pretty tiny when I see clubs compete with each other on what can be genuinely new concepts and in response to Tunnel's lake-warm Wash the Polo Lounge has pulled a rather spectacular trick out of the bag. Wednesday nights at Polo will now be followed up with a fully licensed after- party, late club experience at Corinthen. The chance to dance on (and drink in) the garden has already redefined the way I plan my Wash nights, particularly after such a fun, socialable launch. It's a great way to bring in a DJ that is not as well known as those that frequent the club already. As DJ Clare play in a environment that really suits him, again providing a slight alternative to the flow of many others. His music is fairly feeble. For many Tunnel is Caz and Wed! With a great mix of DJs and entertainment from tribute acts to the fabulous drag queen shows! My club has also managed to get with the times and now are follow their fellow @myslgs and official page for MY Club. Another JOB is to keep right up to date with the nights on Polo and Tunnel I really hope Benjamins can pull something out of the bag to keep them in the big leagues.

A big part of Glasgow’s gay community is obviously the clubbing element, so it was great to see a group of young people of mixed sexualities organising an HIV awareness charity event at the Broomhill Square Hotel in mid-April. The night was hosted by Vanity Glow and with guest speaker Tom Lukas from benedactor Gay Men’s Health. In the sumptuousness of the beautiful star value, with a strict dress code and cocktail Clayton involves the whole team of students involved on put up a great effort. It can be easy to forget that HIV still affects the lives of thousands of LGBT+ people in the UK and UK. And also the fact that these people are worth of our attention, the more they are involved in the community.

TERENCE HIGGINS TRUST (THT) run the Grampian Pride, the huge event during June in Aberdeen. The event involves a boat day and ends with a massive party. Aberdeen is the perfect place to celebrate the LGBT+ community and diversity in all its forms. Terrence Higgins Trust Scotland (THT Scotland) is relaunching a campaign to encourage LGBT+ people to participate in the celebration. Aberdeen is The Capital of Europe, but that’s thanks to NEST, the T-Girl Capital of Scotland.

Aberdeen T-Girls on The Town

Here we go again with another round up of the night out at the ‘Deen scene on the wee while.
The beginning of the financial year saw the move from Cafe/Bar to a separate part of The Pillars – I believe it to be somewhere on Crichton Street – able to pin down the exact location yet, but I've not been able to catch Ross (former Gauger DJ – now also working in the bar back on track).

What I have been told is that there is a realistic chance that someone with experience of the atmosphere for a pub comes from the people in it – so a friendly bar, with a face in charge could well be the place to start in getting this back on track.

I have also been hearing that there is a new venue to open – Ross (again Gauss DJ – now also working in the venue) is behind this, and it should open from the end of April. I've not been able to get down to the new part as Ross believe it to be somewhere on Crichton Street and it is that a separate part of The Pillars – look out for more details as I'm sure this will spread quickly about it when it opens.

Brooks has all the usual great nights and offers on, such as Karaoke on a Wed and Sat with Brian – look out for the singing, he can hold a note great although he tends to stray away from the lyrics a bit – and great range of drinks including various flavours of Sambuca, exclusive Camden Town Beer and Carlsberg Latte, and the more common Skittle, Jaeger and Shock Bomb shots and a cocktail menu. He will be taking various intriguing names such as Main Juice, Saucy Slapper and So-Fat-(C*nt) Along with...

The Inverness LGBT Youth Group has been formed which also includes Pink Castle Highland, Highland Council, Northern Scotland, who have established many similar projects.

Partnerships, a local community development agency in conjunction with Hate Free Highland, as well contributing to the Community Responsibility Partnership of Gaydar.

The new Inverness, Highland & Islands LGBT Group reports a busy month. A recent successful fundraising gala night saw a great attendance and the start of income generation. This new group has met with a number of agencies with a view to staging events in some of the city’s indoor and outdoor venues over the summer. Internet safety and making sure people are aware of it is a priority. Craig reports that the group is now working towards becoming a third party reporting agency in conjunction with Hate Free Highland, as well contributing to the Community Responsibility Partnership of Gaydar.

The new group has met with a number of local bar owners in Inverness, with a view to them declaring and advertising their LGBT-friendly status, and work is underway to agree a positively worded charter for premises to sign up to. Members of the Inverness Gay & Lesbian Forum went to Edinburgh in April and dropped into Habana, The Regent, Planet and the Tenement Bar - they would like to have one for everyone for their friendly hospitality. Folk may be interested in attending the LGBT Sport Network event on 4th July in Mambos (Young’s Street, Inverness). Laser tag and summer activities are being planned.
