It’s the start of 2008 and already there are plans afoot for various events across Aberdeen.

Before we look forward to 2008, let’s take a look back #2007. Club Foundation had a bumper year with loads of PA’s and theme nights, including Rick’s White Party and Michelle McManus Live. Cheerz Bar also hosted many a theme night with everything from Hawaiian to Scottish Pride Night. Cheerz even opened in the former Wellmans Night. Cheerz Club opened in the former and has a bumper year with loads of PA’s and re-opened in refurbished premises off Holburn Street. With £1.50 drinks before Midnight, what more could you want in a club? Go to www.bebo.com/clubfoundation.

Cheerz has been a bit of a quiet night since the Scottish Pride night in Nov, but has a few things planned for Feb. Pauline, ex barmaid, has returned to work at Cheerz every second Wed night doing what she does best—singing (not just that she wasn’t a good harmonic!) and DJ Steve Motley every other Wed. On Thu, the infamous Quiz Night at Cheerz with Max Romy is back! End of every month there is a £150 prize for the winning team (3 members or less) Sat is the FUN night at Cheerz with something for everyone. Alan on Karaoke from 6.30pm - 9.30pm, then Miss Romy returns with her usual 3 Sat night entertainment showing all of her favourite hits and camp classics. More at www.cherriebar.net and bebo.com/cherriebar.

Just next door to Cheerz is The Market Arms which seems to be getting more of an LGBT clientele. Josie Malcolm and the team for Karaoke Fri and Sat and fantastic drink prices 7 days a week. They also are on Bebo www.bebo.com/market-arms

Foundation continues to be Aberdeen’s premier gay club with plenty in the pipeline to keep all the gay-happy well as happy as they can keep some of us! They are about to announce a whole line up of PA’s for 2008 possibly including International DJ’s The Frenemies. With £1.50 drinks before Midnight, what more could you want in a club? Go to www.bebo.com/clubfoundation.

Well that’s Jan out of the way, we finally all get paid and can start spending money on the important things in life like socialising, going out and getting over the New Year blues with lots of drink! It’s also a perfect time to find Mr or Ms Right with The Gauger.

THE GAUGER is sticking to what it knows this month with Bums Leaping every Fri and Sat night and Karaoke every Wed and Sun. Remember the Gauger also has Sky Sports so it is an ideal place to watch the football, rugby etc, whatever your reason for watching it (even in tight shirts sprays so mandy)! The Gauger is also now doing food every Thu night and with a first prize work drink. Brooklyn’s also has its quiz every night, it is an ideal place to watch the games so ask behind the bar for more details.

Brooklyn’s is still offering free pool every night between 5pm and 9pm and with drinks promos on every night it is an ideal place to go with your mates for an after work drink. Brooklyn’s also has its quiz nights every Thu night and with a first prize of £20 it is a must when trying to find funds for rent etc. Brooklyn’s has on regular nights on this month with Karaoke every Sat, Wed and Fri and a DJ every Sat. Kerry was still deciding what to do for Valentine’s Day but thinks that it will be Shag Tag, which for those who don’t know what Shag Tag is, “it does exactly what it says on the tin”, so if you have your eye on someone this is your chance to let them know.

DIVERSITAY LGBT GROUP provides the LGBT community of Tayside confidential support and information through their phone line which is open from 7pm till 7pm every Mon night. They have made a change to Icebreaker evenings which are now the first Wed of the month. So, make a note in your diary now for their next one which will be on Wed Feb 9th 6pm to 7.30pm as Nobby Parkers (attached to the Queen’s Hotel on the Perth Road). It is a small, informal, safe environment for people to come along who want to chat with other LGBT people but maybe don’t want to visit the “scene”. It is also an opportunity for those of you who are thinking of volunteering with Diversitay to come along and find out more.

Diversitay will also be out on the scene over Valentine’s Day so look out for them and don’t be afraid to talk to them or ask them questions about anything that may be bothering you. The next issue of their newsletter will also be out around the same time. DVA: ring the DVA for more information.

DUNDIE DYNAMOS FC are still looking for male players to join them and have now set up training sessions so it is an ideal time for you to try out for your New Year’s Resolutions of getting in shape into practice. For more information about what they’re getting up to, contact them by E-mail: dundiedynamos@hotmail.co.uk.

THE GAUGER*

218BlacknessRoad.Tel: Dundee (01382)206222 or E-mail: dv8_dundee@yahoo.co.uk. They are a youth group for young people aged 25 and under who have issues with their sexuality, or with the sexuality of a member of their family, or friends.

DOUBLY DISCREET*

5pm, First Wed of each month, then every Sun 7pm till 9pm every Mon night. They have now setup trainingsessions so it is an ideal time for you boys to put your New Years Resolutions of getting in shape into practice. For more information about what they’re getting up to, contact them by E-mail: doubly_discreet.com

It's been a busy start to the year in Edinburgh, with new concepts everywhere. It looks like 2008 is going to be an exciting year.

We ended 2007 on a high note with Club Velvet, who closed their sheet of refusal to go on tour, leaving behind a very fun and permanent home. The Ark on Waterloo Place could not offer a better venue, with a dance floor at one end of the club and a large seating area at the other. A perfect combination serving both those wanting to dance the night away, and those who would rather enjoy the view as a conversational backdrop?

The Dog Night went down tremendously well, and hopefully the powers behind Velvet are planning another such theme night soon.

Vela has confirmed a spot in the Ark on the last bar of the month, with a few variations on old months - hooray this time line-up planned at the moment. 23rd Feb, 22nd Mar and 26th Apr. Tickets need to be pre-purchased, and these can be bought from Planet Out. The Regent, Ripping Records, Ticket Scotland and Ticketwork – so no excuse for coming up without!

Velvet also Analogues back on the decks DJ Trench! Adding an extra punch of girl power to the Velvet crew, Wendy will be offering the best of cheap wines alongside DJ Leather Face, Lucy Fur and DJ Jeremy of Planet Out fame.

Fantastic news for all fans of pop! Deep Blue, the Blue Moon’s basement venue, has had a very impressive brand new pool installed. They’re planning a small and quick refit of the area, which will involve pulling out the booths and installing some pool-friendly seating to allow for more space. This is a very good move for Deep Blue, as the new pool seems to be city offers such a necessary commodity! It’s been some years since Planet Out had their pool tables pulled out and these have been sorely missed. Contact the Moon for more info!

Happy New Year to all - many of you may be aware, the LGBT Centre for Health and Wellbeing on Howe Street is currently undergoing a funding re-visit and accordingly all services have been suspended. With the future of the centre in such uncertain times the centre is currently looking for a new permanent home. If you have any info, or know of a possible venue, please email info@gbtyouth.org.uk.

On another note - Alan Joy, 58a and 60 Broughton Street, is currently looking for a return to his roots for LGBT Centre for Health and Wellbeing on Howe Street. The centre is currently looking for a new permanent home. If you have any info, or know of a possible venue, please email info@gbtyouth.org.uk.

A unique concept for the Edinburgh gay scene is brought to you by the fascinating queer-mutiny group. Queer Mutiny and Queer UP group are spinning up across the world, with a mission to create alternatives to the commercial gay lifestyle. They are dedicated to creating a space for LGBT people who are ‘against’ consumerism, patronage and assimilation, or who don’t feel welcome in the capitals existing gay spaces.’ This radical collective feel that Edinburgh’s commercial gay scene is repressive, capitalist and doesn’t allow for freedom of expression. The first event was held on Fri 16th Jan at 7pm at the Foron Café. It’s hoped that further activism and discussion groups will spring from this pilot, so if you’re keen to get involved in creating a new and different space for LGBT people, email the team at dundeequeermutiny@gmail.com.

LGBT Youth have started a new group for women aged between 17-25. Held on this evenings from 6-8pm at 10 Sunnydie, Edinburgh, this is an excellent opportunity for young women to get together and share thoughts and experiences. For more info, call the Youth Worker at the centre on 0131-622 2266. LGBT Youth are also currently looking for male and female mentors, which will be something you’ll be able to call the centre on 0131-622 2266.
