Stephen Holdsworth, who has died aged 47, was a long-time gay activist and a person of huge intellectual capacity, deep convictions and intense interests.

Born in South London, the son of an Anglican priest, Stephen had his first gay experiences in his mid-teens, but it was when he came to Edinburgh University, where he studied Divinity, that he fully formed his identity as a gay man. After a rocky start – he used to tell the story of approaching the Gay Soc at Frasher’s Week and ostensibly hanging up a leaflet as a public act of denial – he quickly came out and became a political activist. He was strongly drawn to left politics, literature and sexual politics, and became for a time a member of the student branch of the Communist Party of Great Britain.

Involved in the lesbian and gay movement throughout the 80s, Stephen was one of the organisers of a Lesbian and Gay Socialist conference in Edinburgh in 1984, and active in supporting miners’ strike.

Stephen was never hide-bound, and was un-phased by finding himself in a ten-year relationship with Katie Fanoury, although many friends were taken by surprise. He and Katie worked jointly as volunteer Books and Features editors for Gay Scotland magazine, were instrumental in starting the Edinburgh Bisexual Group, which ran for 16 years, and created a number of flamboyant political banners, his favourite of which was ‘Pink Con看得 Queers’, the banner of the CPGB Lesbian and Gay Network, fashioned from pink net.

Stephen’s first paid job was as part-time administrator for Gay Scotland, and then at the CPGB for a year. He qualified as a graduatemember of the Institute of Personnel Development.

with free entry and prizes for those who get active in the LGTB community, there’s a new night planned for the forthcoming months. Held at CC Blooms, which is a night specially for Bears and Cubs. Being held on Sun, 12th April, it will feature guest DJs and promos all night, to a backdrop of dirty, underground tunes.

For everyone who has a penchant for dancing, or festive vibes, this is now housed at GMD on the last Sunday of the month! March’s theme is ‘Emergency Service Night’, being held on Sun 29th March – with a special guest DJ. April, it will feature guest DJs and promos all night, to a backdrop of dirty, underground tunes.

ABERDEEN

Inverness. In April this will be on the 7th and 21st and 3rd Tues of the month from 7-9pm at the Granite City Stormers football team office. Please let you guys know as soon as I do.

HIGHLANDS

The Granite City Stormers football team office: Aberdeen University held their very successful summer sports day. The group will discuss the following questions:

- What will happen is decisions are made by the group to offer women a chosen subject, or just to an evening that can meet you in advance and show you what is happening.
- If, on the other hand, you are feeling the effects of this depressing economy – an LGBT-friendly church holds a service for those of you who don’t have anything to do, and would like to come together.

There is also a Bear Night on the first Fri of every month, so get growing! Don’t forget the drunks sessions on the same.

GLASGOW

As we speak: Golf! Yes! Whistling on ladies and gents, this month may have been short, but boy oh boy was it sweet. I can’t believe the amount of money raised so far! To date: £600. Happy days all round please!
